2. Because the honour and interest of the Crown are concerned, in having a due and independent provision made for the first-born son, and their apparent to the Crown.

3. Because, in the late King's reign, 100,000l. a-year, clear of all deductions whatsoever, was settled upon his present Majesty, when Prince of Wales, out of a Civil List not exceeding 700,000l. a-year.

4. Because his present Majesty had granted him by Parliament several funds to compose a civil list of 800,000l. a-year, which we have very good reason to believe bring in at least 900,000l. and are more likely to encrease than to diminish.

5. Because, out of this extraordinary and growing Civil List, we humbly conceive his Majesty may be able to make an honourable provision for the rest of his Royal Family, without any necessity of lessening that revenue which, in his own case, when he was Prince of Wales, the wisdom of Parliament adjudged to be a proper maintenance for the first-born son and heir apparent of the Crown.

6. Because it is the undoubted right of Parliament to explain the intention of their own acts, and to offer their advice in pursuance thereof. And though, in the inferior Courts of Westminster-hall, the Judges can only consider an act of Parliament according to the letter and express words of the act, the Parliament itself may proceed in a higher way, by declaring what was their sense in passing it, and on what grounds; especially in a matter recent, and within the memory of many in the House, as well as out of it.

7. Because there were many obvious and good reasons, why the sum of 100,000l. per annum for the Prince was not specified in the act passed at that time, particularly his being a minor, and unmarried. But we do apprehend, that it is obvious that the Parliament would not have granted to his Majesty so great a revenue above that of the late King, but with an intention that 100,000l. a year should at a proper time be settled on the Prince, in the same manner as it was enjoyed by his Royal Father, when he was Prince of Wales. And his Royal Highness being now thirty years old, and most happily married, we apprehend it can no longer be delayed, without prejudice to the honour of the Family, the right of the Prince of Wales, and the intention of the Parliament. And as in many cases the Crown is known to stand as trustee for the public, upon grants in Parliament; so we humbly conceive that in this case, according to the intention of Parliament, the Crown stands as trustee for the Prince, for the forefaid sum.

8. Because we do conceive, that the present Prince of Wales ought to have the like jointure that her present Majesty had, when she was Princess of Wales, and that it would be for the honour of the Crown, that no distinction whatever should be made between persons of equal rank and dignity.

9. Because we apprehend, that it has always been the policy of this country, and care of Parliament, that a suitable provision, independent of the Crown, should be made for the heir apparent, that by shewing him early the ease and dignity of independence, he may learn by his own experience, how a great and free people should be governed. And as we are convinced in our consciences, that if this question had been passed in the affirmative, it would have prevented all future uneasiness that may unhappily rise upon this subject, by removing the cause of such uneasiness, and giving his Royal Highness what we apprehend to be his right; we make use of the privileges inherent in Members of this House, to clear ourselves to all posterity from being concerned in laying it aside.

10. Lastly, we thought it more incumbent upon us to insist upon this motion, for the sake of this Royal Family, under which alone we are fully convinced we can live free, and under this Royal Family we are fully determined we will live free.

The accounts in the public prints, which mention that an accommodation had taken place between a Great Personage and the Heir Apparent, respecting the adjustment of his Highness's revenue, is without foundation. Eng. Chron.

Yesterday morning Mrs Fitzherbert set off from her house in Park-street for Brightelmston.

George the Second, when Prince of Wales, had one hundred thousand pounds per annum settled on him, though the civil list did not exceed seven hundred thousand a-year.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Queensberry killed his Majesty's hand at St James's, as Duke of Dover and Marquis of Beverly, titles that were enjoyed by the late Duke of Queensberry, and have lain dormant since his decease.

Yesterday morning the Marquis of Lothian and Earl of Chatham set off on a visit to his Grace the Duke of Rutland at Dublin Castle.

Lady Percy (that once was) Lord Bute's eldest daughter, is arrived from America, where she has resided for some time.

Mr Sayre, the merchant, is also arrived from the continent with his family.

Mr Alderman Lee, and many others, who once resided in England, and were the first to open houses in America, have quitted it. The phantom of the golden dream of American Independence is dissolved, and the delusion it inspired is left as a lesson to the present, and will be abhorred by the next generation.

The ships that are gone to China this year had orders to proceed home with the utmost dispatch possible; the Trial packet, Captain Pointer, which sailed in October last, and arrived at the Cape in the January following, having been sent out for the express purpose of intrusting the agents to procure cargoes for 2000 tons of shipping, which were expected to be in the river of Canton from Europe by August 1786.

The Young Eagle, White, with nine fish and 200 seals; Hannibal, Rogers, with ten fish and 30 seals; Morfe, Goulson, with six fish and 250 seals; and the Francis, Stephens, with nine fish and 340 seals, all from Greenland, are arrived in the River.

A young Scotch Student being interrogated, in the course of probation for the holy ministry, concerning the difference between orthodoxy and heterodoxy, modestly and wisely replied, "Orthodoxy is one's own doxy, and heterodoxy another man's doxy."

The Pennsylvania papers of April last, state, that a gold mine has been discovered in Montgomery county, state of Virginia; and that from an assay made on some of the ore, it appears that the quantity of that valuable metal produced exceeded expectation.

The Gazette de France, of the 7th of this month, announces the birth of a Spanish Prince in a manner that will probably make the English reader smile. The paragraph we have translated without the smallest exaggeration, viz. "In the night between the 17th and 18th of June last, the Infanta Donna-Mariana Victoria, wife of the Infant Don Gabriel, was happily delivered of a Prince at Madrid; who was soon after baptized by the names of Pedro-Charles-Antonio-Raphael-Joseph-Janvier-Francis-John-Nepomucene-Thomas de Villeneuve-Marko-John-Vincent-Ferrier-Rainon-Peter de Alcantara-Ferdinand."

The Spaniards, since the establishment of Christianity, have constantly given a great number of names to their children, from a superstitious opinion, that each Saint, whose name they bear, will be their special patron and guardian, and inspire them with the virtues for which those holy characters were themselves distinguished during life, and afterwards canonized.

Foreign nations must entertain but a contemptible opinion of the English seminaries of education, when they see our Princes sent to a German University. Had Oxford or Cambridge been thought dangerous to their morals, why not have given Scotland the honour of educating a British Prince? The Ethics of Aberdeen are as pure as those of Gottingen.

The treaties between Great Britain and Portugal are now in the course of examination for a revival. This is one cause of the late dispatches between Government and Mr Walpole, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at Lisbon.

"Mr Eden proceeds most deliberately in his negotiation with the French Cabinet. The commercial arrangements are bringing into order, and a treaty formed thereon will certainly take place in a few months. The Duke of Dorset, who is now in London, is expected to return here in an unwidowed state; at present, you know, we have no Ambassadors."

WIND AT DEAL, JULY 14. N. E.

EDINBURGH.

Extract of a letter from London, July 15.

"There is not the least foundation for the report circulated in the public papers of a reconciliation between a certain heir apparent and his illustrious father. Equally idle are the several accounts of offers from the Duke of Orleans, the Count of France, and people of Ireland, to settle his debts."

"The death of Earl Northington, and the Teller's office of the Exchequer, to which Lord Thurlow has succeeded in consequence thereof, has afforded his Lordship an opportunity for exercising a conduct that does him the highest honour."

"During the indisposition of the learned Lord, Earl Bathurst has officiated for him in the Upper House. This Lord Thurlow frequently mentioned in the Cabinet as a piece of service that laid his Lordship under the highest obligation, and his Lordship regretted there were no other means of acknowledging it. An opportunity, however, at length offered itself. As soon as his Lordship was sworn in as one of the Tellers of the Exchequer, he waited on Mr Pitt, though extremely ill, and asked of him the reversion of the office for Lord Apsley, the son of Earl Bathurst. Several applications had been made prior thereto, but the name of Apsley was immediately put down for the reversion, and, in the evening, Lord Thurlow wrote to Earl Bathurst informing him thereof; a copy of which, with the answer returned, would, no doubt, be great treats to the public curiosity."

"This transaction may be depended upon; and serves no less to show how capable the Chancellor is of discharging his duty, than it does to prove the great influence of the House of Commons."

"A Teller's office of the Exchequer is counted about 3500 l. a-year, notwithstanding, by Mr Burke's famous bill, one half of the salary and emoluments are abolished."

"It is the Duke of Queensberry, and not the Duke of Dorset, to whom the title of Duke of Dover, &c. has been given. This is said to have been done in order to give the Ministry an opportunity of introducing some favourite into the Lords, as one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland."

"The person found attempting to set fire to the Palace at Kensington, has been examined, and appears to have been in a state of insanity."

Wilhelma Lady Glenorchy, widow of John Lord Glenorchy, died here on Monday last.

Yesterday morning, the Lord Advocate resumed the arguments which he had begun on Saturday before the Lord Ordinary, in favour of the City of Edinburgh, against the College of Justice. The hour allotted for that purpose yesterday not affording sufficient time for his Lordship to finish his speech, he concluded this morning. After which the Honourable Henry Erskine, Dean of Faculty, informed the Lord Ordinary, that though he had many material arguments to offer in favour of the exemption contended for by the College of Justice, which had not hitherto been spoke to; yet, if his Lordship should think it necessary, in a cause of such magnitude, to have it laid before him in writing before giving judgment, he would not trouble his Lordship with any pleading upon the subject. This occasioned a short conversation between the Lord Ordinary, the Lord Advocate, and Mr Erskine. The Lord Ordinary observed, that having heard the matter so ably pled on both sides, he was then as ripe to give judgment as he probably would be at any future period; but, considering the cause of so much importance, he certainly would incline to report it to the whole Court upon written memorials from the parties, before giving his own judgment upon its merits, as, whatever it might be, he was sure one of the parties would not be satisfied with it, and that the decision of the whole Lords would at any rate be demanded. The Lord Advocate insisted to hear what new matter the Dean of Faculty was to insist upon, before going into memorials; unless the counsel for the College of Justice consented to give in their memorial first, that the counsel for the City might see it, and be thereby able to answer any new argument which might be advanced. The Dean of Faculty would not agree to this, but proposed that they should interchange memorials before printing them for the Court. The Lord Ordinary not approving of this method, and the Lord Advocate insisting that the Dean of Faculty should be heard, the matter was settled in that manner. Mr Erskine will therefore begin his pleading on Friday morning, at nine o'clock.

Extract of a letter from Dublin, July 13.

"By a letter just received from the north-west coast we learn, that a wherry lately built for Messrs Dowdall and Keon, of Ruff, has discovered a fine fishing bank, on which she killed, in 48 hours, 800 ling, 400 skate, and upwards of 500 cod and conger eel; and that this incident had proved of such advantage, that the wherries on that fishery, belonging to this coast, are now laden, and the greatest quantities of choice fish are daily expected to arrive at the neighbouring ports."

"We hear from the north and north-west coasts of this kingdom, that above two hundred fishing vessels are assembled in Sheep Bay and other inlets, in order to proceed on the herring fishery, which will commence about the middle of this month. As the bounty depends upon a certain tonnage, and number of casks, those who do not chuse, or are unable to make such an outfit, are resolved to pack their fish in grobs—a method equally safe with flowing them in barrels, and attended with infinitely less expence. The bounty is a prize, but hardly attainable by persons who are not able to bear the first cost of the ticker. It is hoped our legislature may moderate the terms on which their premium can be obtained, as a number of industrious men are deterred from fitting out vessels, with an eye to the reward, on account of the expence, which they esteem needless, with respect to the safety of the fish."

ARRIVED AT GREENOCK, July 10. Home, Patterdale, from Grenada, with sugar and rum; Fortune, Howland, from Tortola, ditto.—I. Pailley, Boyd, from Grenada; Findlay, Watson, from ditto; Blandford, Troop, from Virginia, with tobacco; Lady Margaret Macdonald, from Laine, with limestone.—12. Bous-

Yesterday the Exchequer Term commenced.

Monday night, Mrs Jordan made her first appearance at the Theatre-Royal here, in the character of the Country Girl, and was received throughout with the utmost approbation and applause by a very numerous and elegant audience.

Yesterday a person of the name of Thomson, applied to the House of Sir William Forbes, Sir James Hunter Blair, and Co. with a bill to be discounted, which, upon inspection, some of the names being wrong spelt, appeared to be a forgery, and which Thomson, on being carried to the Council Chamber, confessed it was. He was committed to prison.

Yesterday, arrived in the Roads of Leith, the Caledonia, belonging to Borrowtownness, from Greenland, with seven fish, four of which are sizeable, consequently a valuable cargo.

Some of our correspondents who intend to make offer to the Trustees for seats upon the South Bridge, are of opinion, that eight days is too short a time to consider of the proposals, and to make out plans and estimates of houses of so many different breadths. They therefore hope some more time will be given for this purpose.

We hear from Inverness, that, on Friday last, John Macpherfon was executed there for the crime of sheep-stealing. He died penitent. Christopher and Duncan Macrae, who were sentenced to be hanged the same day, had made their escape from prison.

On Monday last, the Magistrates and Council of St Andrews unanimously elected Mr William Dick at Dunfer, to be master of their grammar school, upon the resignation of Mr John Halker, who has for some time past resided in the service of his office.

We hear from Stanwick, in Yorkshire, the seat of his Grace the duke of Northumberland, that the Reverend Mr Raine, vicar of that place, has adopted a new plan and mode of instruction for the poor children of his parish, that does him the highest credit. The children of both sexes, and of all ages, attend at his church every Sunday morning, at nine o'clock, when Mr Raine, (from that time till eleven, when prayers begin) after clasping them as he thinks best, begins by hearing those who are able to read in the Bible verse for verse, explaining difficult passages and difficult words as they go along. He then instructs the rest in such books as they are able to read. After this he catechises the whole, and explains the Catechism; and then concludes with a general spelling lesson. The happy effects which this may produce, are, that it may greatly contribute to improve the morals of the children, by bringing the younger part of the congregation constantly to church, where they are educated at no expence, either to themselves or to the parish.—This is an example worthy of imitation.

Captain McGill of the Jeanie writes, of date the 4th of June, that twelve vessels were then wind-bound in Patomack, among which were the Eolus, Jeanie, and four others bound for France.

The Excise cutter, Captain Gelly, has taken a smuggling cutter, loaded with brandy, tobacco, &c. and carried her into Lairn.

Rudiments of Latin & English Grammar.
BY ALEXANDER ADAM, LL. D.
Rector of the High School of Edinburgh.

The 3d Edition, with great Additions.
In Etymology, under the different terminations of nouns and verbs, are enumerated, in alphabetical order, all the radical words of the Latin tongue, and also many of the derivatives and compounds. The most necessary rules of Rudiman's Latin Grammar are inserted.

The Syntax is much enlarged, particularly by a full explanation of the different meaning and construction of verbs and prepositions, and of those phrases which occasion most difficulty to learners. A brief account of tropes and figures is added.

By the natural division of words and sentences into simple and compound, no rule or example is introduced in syntax or prosody, till the learner is properly prepared by what goes before to understand it.

The greatest care has every where been taken to render the translation of Latin words and phrases subservient to knowledge of English.

N. B. The Etymology, with an abridgement of Syntax and Prosody, for the use of beginners, may be had separately, price 1s. 6d.

DISTILLERY.

To be LET, and entered to between and Martinmas next, THE DISTILLERY at Blackburn, being one of the most convenient for carrying on business in Scotland, lying 18 miles west from Edinburgh, on the great road leading to Glasgow by Livingston and Whitburn.

There is a complete set of utensils, and a great quantity of Casks of different sizes.—The Singling Still is 400 gallons, the Doubling Still better than 100 gallons, in good order for working. There is a good Barley Mill, and Rollers for malt, and the water which drives the mill supplies the Flakeland. Barley to any amount can be got in the neighbourhood. The tackman can have a farm of from one to three hundred acres of good land, lying contiguous to the Distillery; and there is plenty of lime and coal within two English miles. James Caldwell, at Blackburn, will show the work.

For particulars apply to the proprietors at Blackburn, or Mr Thomas Wingate, writer in Stirling.

Not to be repeated.

TO BE SOLD BY PRIVATE BARGAIN,

AN ESTATE of about 600 l. a-year.

It lies 28 miles to the northward of Edinburgh, upon the bank of a large river, finely exposed to the sun, commanding a beautiful view of the country, and of the windings of the river for many miles. There are near 1400 Scots acres in it, of which about 1100 are excellent arable land; about 130 acres have been inclosed some time ago, and planted with above 250,000 trees, which are in a thriving condition; and will in a few years be worth a great deal of money; 130 acres have also been inclosed, and divided in portions among the different tenants, and by proper cultivation, will soon become good ground.

700 acres of the whole are already inclosed, and the rest may soon be finished at a small expence, there being quarry in many parts of the estate. The tenants are thriving, and bound to pay 7 per cent. on the money laid out in inclosing. Some of their leases are near out; others of them, in which there gradual rises coming on, have 5, 8, 11, 12, and 24 years to run. There is plenty of lime and marl at hand; and it may easily be made above 300 l. a-year, in a short time.

It is within five miles of a large county town, and less than a mile of a post-road. There is a most beautiful situation for a house on the side of the river, where there is now the remains of an old castle.

There are less than four freehold qualifications on the roll of the county from the estate; and, to any body who has the command of money, it will be found a very eligible purchase.

Mr Alexander Duncan clerk to the signet, Queen's-street, Edinburgh, will show the title-deeds, which are clear, and a rental and map of the estate.

SALE OF DURN.

By Adjournment—and Upset Price Reduced.
TO be SOLD by public roup, under authority of the Court of Session, within the Parliament-House of Edinburgh, upon Friday the 4th day of August 1786, between the hours of four and six afternoon,
All and Whole the Lands, Barony, and Estate of DURN, with the Teinds and Mill of the same, lying in the parish of Fordyce, and thir of Banff, the proven free rent whereof, exclusive of the Cefs, which is paid by the tenants, is 7211. 6s. 4d. 3-12ths, and the upset price is now to be 16,500 l.

The valued rent is 951 l. Scots; and those parts of the lands held of the Crown entitle the proprietor to a freehold qualification in the county.

The estate is reckoned to contain about 1600 Scots acres, exclusive of a share in an undivided common and moss. It is situated within about a quarter of a mile of Portferry, five miles from Banff, and three from Cullen, in that district of the shire called the Boyne. The estate is well tenanted, most of the leases nearly expired, and, upon a renewal, it is expected some of the farms will yield more than double the present rent. The lands abound with lime-stone, marble, and white stone quarries; and on the hill of Durn there are great quantities of white stone fit for pottery, for which advantageous offers have been made.

The Lands are also well accommodated with the means of improvement; as the barony has a servitude on the inexhaustible mosses of Park, and from their vicinity to water-carriage, coal and every other necessary are easily procured. The Gardens of Durn are very extensive, and well stocked with fruit-trees of the best kinds. A considerable part of the estate contiguous to the house is inclosed and subdivided with whin and thorn-hedges, and belts of thriving young plantations, which render the parks remarkably warm and well-sheltered. There is likewise a good deal of old planting about the house, on which no value is put. A new house may be set down at a little distance from the old one, on a more elevated and most eligible spot, in the middle of a rich loamy field of forty acres, well supplied with spring and running water, and diversified with most delightful and extensive prospects of the Moray Frith, and country adjacent.

N. B. The purchaser of this estate may have an opportunity of purchasing the superiority of that part of it which holds of a subject, and nearly affords a freehold qualification in the shire.

The articles of roup are to be seen in the office of Mr Alexander Ross, depute-clerk of Session; and the rental of the estate, with a measurement, in the hands of William Dick writer to the signet, agent in the sale, to whom, or to Mr Keith Dunbar, depute clerk of Session, intending offers may apply for other particulars. A plan of the estate lies with Mr James Duff at Banff, factor appointed by the Court; and John Ross, gardener at Durn, will show the grounds.

Sale of Lands in Ayrshire.

THE Lands and Barony of HAINING-ROSS, and great part of the Lands and Baronies of CESSOCK and BARR, are to be exposed to public sale within the Old Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, between the hours of five and six afternoon, upon Thursday 20th July 1786. These lands lie contiguous in the parishes of Riccarton and Galston, and county of Ayr.—They consist of about 2100 Scots measure, of very good arable and meadow ground; in the close neighbourhood of the thriving town of Kilmarnock, and have three great roads passing through them.—The present free rent, after deduction of the land-tax, and every other annual burden, is 1862 l. Sterling, exclusive of the coal, which, at an average of some years past, although wrought under great disadvantages, owing to the competition of some neighbouring collieries, has yielded from 70 l. to 80 l.—There is coal, lime, and free-stone in several parts of the estate, and a fire engine has been lately erected upon one very extensive and valuable field of coal.—There are about 60 acres of wood, of which about 20 acres are now fit for cutting, and some grown timber over the estate to a considerable value.—The tenants are substantial; the farm houses in good repair; and the farms are all inclosed and subdivided with full grown hedges, which are ample fences.—The tacks have not many years to run, and at their expiry there must to the proprietor.—The valued rent is 2512 l. 10s. 6d. 3-12ths, and the proprietor has a heritable right to the mill and mill-dyke.

For further particulars apply to the proprietor at Rosemount, or to John Russell junior, clerk to the signet, Edinburgh.

TRINITY MAINS near EDINBURGH, and LANDS in AYRSHIRE.

TO be SOLD by public roup, in Poole's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Monday the 31st July current, at six afternoon precisely.

The Lands of TRINITY MAINS, consisting of about 55 Scots acres, and holding feu of the Trinity House of Leith, for payment of two bolls of barley at the Mid-Lothian fairs, twenty shillings in money per acre, and minister's stipend, cefs, and land money.

These lands lie in a situation truly delightful, on the banks of the Frith of Forth, about one mile west of Leith, and one mile north of the New Town of Edinburgh. The roads from Edinburgh and Leith to Queensferry meet at the gates of the lands. A coach-road down to the sea is made through them, and there are lodges and gates at each end of it.

The soil is rich and dry, remarkably early, and well adapted for gardens, summer houses, sea-bathing quarters, &c. and would make an elegant villa, as the views are very extensive, and most pleasant.

There are besides on these grounds a mansion-house, and a large court of houses, stables, coach-house, &c. with two pump wells, an extensive garden well laid out, and richly furnished, and a thriving belt of planting around it.

The purchaser can soon have possession of the houses, gardens, and some fields; and the whole, if wanted, can be procured by paying a reasonable sum to the tenant, whose lease expires in a few years.

These lands will be exposed at 800 l. sterling.
ALSO, the Lands of WILLOWYARDS, in the parish of Beith, and thir of Ayr, consisting of about 175 English acres of arable land, well inclosed, and subdivided into fifteen fields, and let by one lease to three substantial tenants for 19 years, at 50 l. per annum.

This farm is pleasantly situated along the side of Kilbunny Loch, which abounds with pike and perch. It is within half a mile of Beith, a post and market town, where extensive manufactures are carried on in silk, cotton, and linen. It is eight miles west of Paisley, on the road to Irvine, and in the center between Paisley, Irvine, Kilmarnock, and Greenock.

Upon this property there is a good house, and garden stocked with fruit trees, and an elegant court of offices newly erected.

A valuable flag and stone quarry has been opened in the ground; and it is believed there are coal and limestone in it, but both these articles are in such plenty, and so near indeed that no essay has been made for them.

There are about 10 acres of wood, and a good deal of timber on this farm; and thriving belts of planting surround the greatest part of it. The tenants are bound to preserve the planting and woods, which are fully fenced.

To encourage offers, it will be exposed at 3000 l. being only twenty years purchase of the rental.

The title-deeds of these subjects, and the articles of roup, are in the hands of James Buchan writer to the signet, who has power to conclude a private bargain, previous to the day of sale.

SALE of the ESTATE of REDCASTLE.

TO be SOLD by public roup, within the Old Exchange Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday, the 26th of July current, at six o'clock afternoon.

The Lands and Barony of REDCASTLE, lying in the parishes of Kilmarnock and Kilmuir Wester, and county of Ross. These lands hold of the Crown, and are valued in the Cefs-books of the county at 1491 l. At a moderate conversion of the victual, they yield yearly rent about 1200 l. Sterling; and being very extensive, and still in their natural state, they are capable of great improvement.—Their situation is uncommonly agreeable. They lie along the navigable Frith of Beaulie, which bounds them on the south for the space of about five miles. They are distant from the borough of Inverness only about two miles. The soil is of an exceeding good quality, dry and healthy; and owing to the south exposure, the crops are more early than in the most southerly parts of Scotland. The mansion-house is fit to accommodate a large family. The gardens are extensive, and yield fruit of all kinds in great plenty early, and of the best quality.—There is a considerable salmon fishing upon the estate, and white fish and shell fish of all kinds. The low country game upon it is plenty, and all sorts of Highland game within a few miles of it. There is some natural wood, and the plantations upon the estate are extensive, and in thriving condition.

Lieutenant John Mackenzie at Inverness will show the lands, and the rental, title-deeds, and articles of roup, are to be seen in the hands of John Tait, writer to the signet, Park Place, Edinburgh; and to whom any person may apply, who wishes to purchase by private bargain.

Sale of Lands in Dumfries-shire.

TO be SOLD by public roup, within the Parliament House of Edinburgh, upon Thursday the 27th July 1786, between the hours of five and six afternoon.

The Lands and Estate of KIRKMICHAEL & GLENAE, lying within the parish of Kirkpatrick-Fleming, and sheriffdom of Dumfries; the free rent of which amounts to about 825 l. Sterling. Besides which the tenants, excepting of two farms, are bound to pay the land-tax, and other public burdens.

Also, The Lands of DALRUSCAN, and others, lying in the parish of Tinwald, and sheriffdom forefald; the free rent of which amounts to about 530 l. Sterling. Besides which, the tenants are bound to pay the public burdens &c.

These estates extend from ten to within four miles and a half of Dumfries. The great road lately made from Edinburgh to Dumfries by Moffat, runs through the heart of it. The whole estates, except part of one farm, are arable. They lie compact, in the midst of a pleasant country, well situated for lime either from Dumfries, or from the lime-works at Clovenstone, at about six miles distance. The crops which they produce, both of wheat and oats, are remarkable in quality; and Dumfries and Annan in the neighbourhood, are inexhaustible markets for grain, both for home consumption and exportation.

There is a good mansion-house on the estate of Kirkpatrick-Fleming, pleasantly situated on the banks of the water of Ae. The policy and inclosures are extensive and beautiful; and there is, upon that estate, a large orchard, well stocked, and a great deal of wood both old and young, which was about three years ago valued by persons of skill, at between 9000 l. and 10,000 l. Sterling.

Both estates hold of the Crown, and afford several freehold qualifications. The title-deeds are perfectly clear.—The whole tiends are valued.—The proprietor has right to the tiends of Kirkpatrick-Fleming; and the tiends of Dalruscan, &c. are exhausted by the stipend payable to the minister.

The title-deeds, articles of roup, rentals, and current leases, are to be seen in the hands of John Tait junior, writer to the signet, Edinburgh; and copies of the articles of roup, &c. are also lodged with James Graham, writer in Dumfries, factor upon the estate; and to either of them, or to the proprietor at Kirkpatrick house, or Mr John Hay accountant, Edinburgh, persons desirous of further information may apply. Mr Hay has power to sell by private bargain.

By Adjournment.

The present rents are—For Nether Horsbrugh, 140 l. 8 s. 5 d. 4-12ths.—For Caberston, 166 l.—And for Elliesland, 50 l.

The tenants will show the lands; and the title-deeds, articles of roup, &c. are to be seen in the hands of John Tait writer to the signet, Park-place, Edinburgh; to whom any person may apply, who wishes to purchase by private bargain.

Sale of Lands in Mid-Lothian.

TO be SOLD, the Lands of Hayfield, lying in the parishes of West and Mid Calder, with the Superiority of the Lands of Tolcrofs, lying in the parish of St. Cathberts.

The lands of Hayfield, when all set in tack, paid 1381, of free rent, after deduction of all public burdens, and with the superiority of Tolcrofs, entitle the proprietor to a freehold qualification. The tiends of the whole lands are valued, and exhausted by the minister's stipend.

There is a modern built mansion-house upon Hayfield, with suitable offices. It is situated 16 miles from Edinburgh, four miles south-west from Mid-Calder, in an agreeable spot, lying conveniently for every kind of country amusement. There are about 120 acres of ground around the house, inclosed and subdivided, and a considerable quantity of thriving wood upon it, a good length, and valuable.

The house and inclosures may be entered into when a purchaser pleases; and the greatest part of the price may remain in his hands.

If purchasers incline, the lands of Hayfield will be sold separately, and the superiority retained.

For further particulars, apply to Archibald Tod writer to the signet, who has power to conclude a private bargain. The tenants will show the grounds.

JUDICIAL SALE OF KNOCKANDO AND CRAIGMILL.

TO be SOLD, by public roup, under the authority of the Court of Session, within the Parliament or New Session-house of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 24 day of August next, betwixt the hours of four and six afternoon, in one, two, or three lots, as purchasers shall incline.

All and whole the Lands and Estate of KNOCKANDO and CRAIGMILL, and right by wadset to the superiority of COTTONHILL, all belonging to the late Captain Ludwick Grant of Knockando, and brought to sale at the instance of Elizabeth Grant, his eldest daughter, as apparent heir, with consent of her curators.

LOT I. The Lands of Knockando have a right of fishing salmon in the river Spey, and lie in the parishes of Knockando, and sheriffdom of Elgin and Forres, and the proven gross rent of them, as payable by the tenants, is L. 513 18 11

As there is no heritable right produced to the tiends of these lands, a full fifth is, on that account, deducted from the gross rent; inde, L. 102 15 9 4-12ths

The feu-duty is also deducted, L. 11 4 8-12ths

104 7 5

The proven free rent is, L. 409 11 9

Which being valued in the sale at twenty-five years purchase, the upset-price at which the lands are ordained to be exposed, is L. 10,239, 13 s. 9 d. Sterling.

Besides the above gross rent, the tenants pay the land-tax and school-falary, and perform various services, when required, not specially mentioned nor converted in the rental.

It will also occur to those intending to purchase, that although, in the sale, it is necessary, for want of an heritable right, to deduct a fifth for tiend, the value of a perpetual right by tack, when ascertained according to the established rules, supposing they are Bishop's tiends, not saleable, is, in a comparative view with the deduction on that account from the rent, a very inconsiderable object, and that, if they are paragonage tiends, they can be purchased at six year's purchase of the free tiend, after deducting king's annuity and minister's stipend, which last is, in this case, 39 l. 14 s. 5 d. 4-12ths in money, and 9 bolls of meal, at 8 stone per boll.

There is likewise a fine natural wood, of considerable extent, consisting chiefly of oak, birch, and allan. Besides this natural wood, there are two thriving plantations of firs, the one of them, at an average, about twenty years of age, and occupying about 100 acres, the other planted about the year 1774, neither of which woods, natural or planted, are valued in the sale; nor is any value put upon the salmon-fishing, although it produces sufficiency of fish, in the season, for the proprietor's own family, and might yield some rent, was he disposed to grant a lease of the fishing.

These lands lie upon the north side of the Spey, about ten computed miles from Elgin, and the same from Forres, the two county-towns. They are well accommodated, are capable of great improvement, and afford abundance of muir-game. According to a survey made some time ago, their contents are as follow:

Arable Lands,	Scots Acres.
Grafs,	1168
Under Wood,	611
Moss,	177
Muir and Heath Pasture,	650
	2493

The mansion-house is neat and commodious, sufficient to accommodate a genteel family; and the offices are suitable to the house, and in the best order. The house is placed upon a rising ground, betwixt two rivulets or burns, which run into Spey in the view of it; and the grounds nigh the house are all covered with natural wood of various kinds, in a thriving state. The river Spey is in front of the house, and runs in view thereof for some distance, in a serpentine course.

The gardens are of considerable extent, and contain great variety of fruit-trees of the best kinds, which bear early and excellent fruit. The grounds around the house are laid out with taste, containing variety of trees and flowering shrubs, and having serpentine walks through them, and along the burns on each side for a considerable space. The conveniences about this place are great, and the situation truly healthy and beautiful.

The lands hold of the Crown, and the valued rent of them is 6281. 3 s. 10 d. Scots, which considerably exceeds the sum required for a freehold-qualification in the county.

LOT II. The lands of Craigmill lie in the parish of Dolas, and County forefald; they hold of a subject-superior, for payment of a feu-duty of 8 s. 4 d. Scots. There is an heritable right produced to the tiends of these lands, and the proven free rent, after deducting feu-duty, stipend, and school-falary, is 1591. 4 s. 2 d. 1-12th Sterling, which being valued at twenty-five years purchase, the upset price at which the lands are ordained to be exposed, is 3980 l. 4 s. 4 d. 1-12th Sterling.

These lands lie within four miles of the town of Forres, and about seven from Findhorn, a sea-port town. They are well accommodated with fuel, and every other necessary; afford also plenty of muir-game, and are capable of great improvement.

LOT III. The lands of Cottonhill lie in the parish of Bally, lordship of Enzie, and county of Banff; and hold of the Crown; but as they were disposed in wadset to the said deceased Captain Ludwick Grant, by his Grace Alexander Duke of Gordon, redeemable by his Grace, or his heirs, at Whit Sunday 1776, or at any after term, for payment of 20 l. Scots, they are valued at no more in the sale, and are ordained to be exposed at that sum, being 1 l. 13 s. 4 d. Sterling.

The articles of roup are to be seen in the office of Mr Thomas Bruce, depute-clerk of Session; and a copy of these articles, with the rental, title-deeds, and measurement of the estate may be seen, and any further information had, by applying to Alexander Grant writer, at Mr Isaac Grant's writer to the signet, Edinburgh.

Plans of Knockando and Craigmill, lie with Mr Daniel Cruickshank at Archibald's of Ballintown, factor upon both estates, who will be ready at any time to show the grounds of either estate.
